The Day's Result

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?
Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?
The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through;
Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?
Did you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along,
Or a sort of churlish "howdy," then vanish in the throng?
Were you selfish, pure and simple, as you rushed along your way,
Or is some one mighty grateful for a deed you did today?
May you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?
Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said?
Does the man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?
Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or poorly spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say,
"You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?"

CLASS OF 1933

History

With Apologies to Samuel Pepys

September 15, 1931—On this day we did come to ye Virginia Intermont College to take our places as Juniors of ye Class of '33.

September 16—On this day we did hold our first meeting in ye chapel, at which ye speaker, the Rev. Rosser made us right welcome, and we met ye faculty, who were to be our mentors for our college course.

September 19—On this evening ye Junior Class, with others, was invited to attend a gay party at the new gymnasium. At this a lively orchestra did disburse gay music, to which we tripped the light fantastic, after which we did eat the refreshments provided by the Y. W. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

September 20—On this Holy Sabbath day, like the animals in Noah's Ark, two by two we marched to ye First Baptist Church to worship.

October 31—On this day ye Kiwanis Club of Bristol entertained at ye mystic Hallowe'en season with ye old time Country Fair, held in ye new gymnasium. After which we did eat ice cream, cake, candy, apples, and cider. So to bed.

November 20—On this day, after much deep thought and meditation, the following officers were elected for ye famous Junior class: Gladys Merryman, president; Judith Allen, vice-president; Madeline Marshall, treasurer; Lucile Wyman, secretary. Mr. C. Ernest Cooke was elected sponsor.

November 24 to ye Yuletide Season—We did count off ye paper dolls and mark off ye calendar.

1932—At the beginning of this new year we did assemble for work and ye basket-ball season got under way, interspersed with some studying for examinations.

February 18—On this day was announced the highest honor students of the Junior Class, who made Phi Theta Kappa. These were Mistress Eloise Donaldson, Ann Smith, Doris Harrold, Margaret Massengill, Lucile Wyman, Judith Allen and Evelyn Gillespie.

February 22—On this evening we did celebrate the Bi-Centennial of our first president, George Washington, with a pageant, showing episodes in his life, and ye father of his country with his espouse Martha, were represented by Louise Brewer and Gladys Merryman.

March 3—Ye basket-ball season comes to a close with a victory for ye valiant Junior Class of which Mistress Katherine Keesling was captain, and the following members were honored with varsity letters: Lucile Wyman, Myrtle Rowe, Katherine Keesling, Ann Smith, and Evelyn Gillespie.

April—At ye Easter Tide we did celebrate this joyous season with new Easter hats, rabbits, and little journeys.

After our return to ye old Alma Mater, our dramatic members of Junior Class were initiated into Delta Psi Omega. These were Mistress Gladys Merryman, Tamsie Knight, and Evelyn Gillespie; and our debaters, Eleanor Pippin, Tamsie Knight, Mildred Cline, and Rebecca Rowe into Phi Rho Pi. Ye tennis and baseball seasons were started.

May 16—This day we Juniors did entertain the august members of ye Senior Class with a feast at ye Elks Club, carrying out ye theme of ye Arabian Knights.

May—Ye annual appears with ye pictures of Mistress Mary Voorhies and Margaret Massengill in ye beauty section.

By close of ye term at Intermont we did see that many august members were destined for higher honors and so we said good-bye for ye summer vacation.

History

September 13, 1932—Again this year we did assemble and greet our friends, both old and new, but now our class is Senior, and many famous personages are among us, chief of whom appears our honored Junior President, who has now become President of Student Government; and ye presidency of Y. W. C. A. is held by Evelyn Gillespie, and ye Y. W. A., by Tamsie Knight, while ye positions of honor are held by members of this class, in every other organization.

Ye officers of ye Senior Class were soon elected, being Eloise Donaldson, president; Margaret Massengill, vice-president; Mary Baldwin Jackson treasurer, and Katherine Keesling, secretary.

October 26—A new page of history was written with ye all-day outing at Fleenora Park in the Holston Mountains at ye time of year, when autumn paints its mountains with its gayest colors. On this occasion we did play games, hike, and feast. And so home to bed.

November—Ye Senior Class suffered a great loss in ye resignation of Mistress Eloise Donaldson, who was compelled, on account of illness, to leave college, but her place was most ably filled as president of said class by Mistress Mary Baldwin Jackson; Mistress Nellie Ann Cate was elected treasurer to fill Mistress Jackson's place.

January—'Twas voted by the Senior Class not to put forth ye usually expensive annual due to ye giant depression, but instead to substitute ye "Hand Book."

March—Ye basket-ball season again holds sway and although the trophy cup remains in ye hands of ye Juniors, ye following members of ye Senior Class are chosen to ye varsity team: Lucile Wyman, captain; Ann Smith, Myrtle Rowe, Katherine Keesling, Nevelyn Wall, Dorothy Browne, and Evelyn Gillespie.

March—To the ranks of Phi Theta Kappa, Jane Smith has been added. To Delta Psi Omega, Myrle Hubbard, and to Phi Rho Pi, Elizabeth Goetschius. Winnie Foster, Evelyn Gillespie, and Gussie Austin, all from ye class of 1933.

April—In ye Feature Section of Year Book was chosen five members of ye Senior Class to ornament ye pages: these were Mistress Gladys Merryman, Nellie Ann Cate, Lee Mahan, Jocelle Chambers, and Evelyn Gillespie.

In this fair month, too, journeyed to a distant land, two members of our class, Tamsie Knight and Elizabeth Goetschius, to the country called Duluth, Minnesota, where they brought much championship honors to our institution.

May 1—This day goes down in History as the date of ye Junior-Senior Banquet, at which time ye Seniors were entertained by ye Juniors.

May 24—Our Class Day exercises did take place on ye college campus with ye daisy chain and ye Farewell songs and Prophecies.

May 26—This day ends the History of the Class of '33, at which time we did receive our sheep skin and bid farewell to our friends and teachers and our beloved Alma Mater. Then home to bed.

—Evelyn Gillespie, '33.

Mr. Cooke – You certainly have been nice to me this year and I appreciate it lots.

It has been so much fun going to town with you and Krug on Saturday nights — I'll never forget them.

Even if you think I'm trying to fool you when I tell you how much I've enjoyed the art meetings and making, or at least attempting to make, an Art book this year, I really have.

Hope to see you again sometime.

thanks again for your help in everything. Don't forget

Virginia Alpha Chapter Phi Rho Pi

To Virginia Intermont goes the distinction of securing the Virginia Alpha chapter of Phi Rho Pi, the National Forensic Society for Junior Colleges. Since its installation in 1929, the chapter has become nationally recognized as a leader in forensic activities. In 1930 the debate teams of the local chapter had the highest percentage of victories among the junior colleges of the nation. Last year the forensic teams won the triple championship of the Southeastern Division by victories in oratory, extempore speech, and debate. This year Gene Keeley won the division championship in oratory, and Elizabeth Goetschius and Helen Gibberson won the National Women's Championship in debate at the Duluth, Minnesota, convention. Vice-president Roy C. Brown, sponsor of the chapter, was recently promoted from the office of National Secretary-Treasurer, which he held the past year, to the National Presidency.

My dear Mr. Cooke,

I'm glad to have been in your class this year. Maybe next year she'll know what to write in your year books, but now she still has an inferiority complex. See you next year.

FEATURES

Mr. Cooke —

I can never tell you how much I have enjoyed knowing you and you have been very nice to me. I do hope I will see you next year. Try not to forget a silly girl who hasn't one grain of sense - wishing you a lot of happiness and luck in the future.

Annual Experts

THE ART of book making as developed in the 20th century requires the highest degree of skill. It demands artistic handling of type faces, many of which have a classic beauty in themselves. High grade presswork, which necessitates hours of tedious make-ready to bring out the contrast of light and shadow found in every engraving. And last, but not least, the bookbinding—the art preservative that cares for your book for years to come. Yes, we do all these things, and many more, and our journeymen take pride in producing books, especially College Annuals, of which all of us are proud.
